

Simon Says Activity Card

This activity is perfect for the whole family to get involved and requires no additional resources to play – just your imagination.

WHAT DO I NEED

No resources needed

METHOD

1. Choose the first person to be the leader (ideally an adult for the first round)
2. This person starts the game by saying “Simon Says can you..”
3. You can use a wide range of actions during this game and incorporate counting i.e
 - a. Jump three times
 - b. Touch your head once
 - c. Balance in one leg
 - d. Clap your hands five times
4. The people playing the game listen to the instruction then complete the action as quickly as possible.
5. You can decide to change the leader after every five actions to make sure every one has a turn.